WHEN DO I APPLY?

University and College application process for September 2024 starts on the following dates:

September	UVIC, Emily Carr University
October	UBC, Langara College, Douglas College (Oct 3) SFU, KPU, Capilano University (Oct 3) BCIT (Trades programs are a continuous intake) Vancouver Community College Thompson Rivers University Universities in Canada (most accept applications now) USA Post-secondary Universities and Colleges
Nov 7	University of Toronto, early admission deadline for BC students
December 1	Early admission deadline for UBC
January 15	Final DEADLINE for UBC applications, Emily Carr University, University of Toronto
January 31	DEADLINE FOR SFU & UVIC Queens and McGill have a Feb. 1 deadline Recommended students apply by Dec for most Ontario schools.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Go to the university or college website for anywhere else in Canada – click on “apply now” and you will be directed to a step-by-step process. You will be referred to Education Planner for BC schools, ApplyAlberta for University of Calgary and OUAC for Ontario schools

- 1. Get prepared by knowing where you want to apply and to which program. Viewbooks from most universities and colleges are in the Career Centre. Come and get one. If you need assistance applying (it can be complicated), apply in the Career Centre.
- 2. You will need your BC Provincial PEN number, which is the nine-digit number on your GO Card, report card or a list in the Career Centre.
- 3. Credit card number to pay for the application fee (ranging from $30 to $160 depending on the institution)

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT APPLYING

First come – First served. Colleges work on a first applied, first accepted basis so it is so important to submit an application as early as possible to a college.

Deadlines... Most BC University have final application deadlines between January 15-February 28

Everyone needs a Plan B...

Even if you are planning to go to college as a “back-up” to university, predicting the required admission averages by the universities (especially UBC) next March is impossible. BC Universities are approximately 75%-95% averages based on English 12 and your 3-5 approved academic courses

I want to work and travel first...

Students planning to postpone post-secondary school and enter the workforce after graduation should look into Work Experience, Apprenticeship or CTC Programs in the Career Centre. Put in a college application to Langara or Kwantlen just in case you change your mind and want to go to school next September or January. Most institutes can defer your application for 3 semesters.

ACCESS YOUR PERSONAL SITE AT YOUR CHOSEN UNIVERSITY – SELF-REPORT YOUR GRADES/UPLOAD TRANSCRIPT

Once you have applied, you are directed via e-mail on instructions for self-reporting/uploading mid term/final grades to the universities. ALWAYS CHECK CORRESPONDENCE WITH YOUR UNIVERSITY VIA YOUR PERSONAL ACCOUNT – VERY IMPORTANT! This is where students check application status, pay tuition, chooses courses...etc.

ALL STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE THE ON-LINE FORM TO AUTHORIZE RELEASE OF THEIR MARKS TO THEIR CHOSEN COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY

www.StudentTranscripts.gov.bc.ca

To print Interim transcripts, log into StudentTranscripts.gov.bc.ca

Official Paper Transcripts... Send sealed, signed official paper transcripts to colleges for limited enrollment programs such as graphic design, nursing, journalism, photography etc. BCIT will want you to upload your transcript at the time of application. Official transcripts may be required for scholarship applications, and universities outside of BC. Official transcripts are available by request from either myself or Mrs. Oye in the School Office. SEND PAPER TRANSCRIPTS ONLY IF YOU ARE ASKED TO DO SO!

LEVEL ONE TRADES TRAINING PROGRAMS

What is it?

Level One Trades Training is training to prepare students for employment/apprenticeship in the trade area of their choice.

Where can I apply for Level One?

- Delta School District Career Programs
- BCIT
- Kwantlen Polytechnic University
- Vancouver Community College

Apprenticeship and Youth Train/Work in Trades

Upon completion of a Level One program, students receive their Level 1 training certification and may seek employment as apprentices. At DSS we also have a Secondary School Apprenticeship program available so students can bank hours and receive credit for apprenticeship work while in high school.

If you are planning a career in the Trades industries please see Ms. Jew or Ms. Day. There are many educational options available.

DECREASE THE WAITLIST TIME BY DOING A PRETEST

Wanting to decrease the waitlist time to enter Trades Training at BCIT or Kwantlen Polytechnic University? Students can complete a pre-test. Here is how:

Pre-tests can either be done at BCIT Burnaby campus or at DSS. You must book your pre-test online. If you want to write your test at DSS, you must put my name down as the invigilator.

<https://www.bcit.ca/trades-access/trades-entry-assessment/tor>.

PRE-TESTS AT KWANTLEN POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY

You must book your pre-test online and will require a KPU student number. You can take the test at their Surrey campus

Scholarships, Bursaries and Student Loans

What is a Scholarship?

A scholarship is a monetary gift based on merit or excellence in a particular field. Donors reward community service, leadership, involvement and achievements in school or the community, athletics, music, drama, student government, academic competitions, volunteer activities and other endeavours.

What is a Bursary?

A bursary is based on financial need and usually evidence of need is required. Donors often require secondary criteria based on merit or excellence in a particular field.

Nominated Awards-changes can occur in this category

The schools' scholarship committee looks at approximately 6 nominated scholarships per year. The following institutes offer nominated scholarships: U of Toronto, Queens, Western, BC Excellence, Cmolik and Schulich. Gr 12 students must submit their "brag sheet" outlining their achievements to be considered. The "brag sheet" is available in Ms. Hansen's google classroom (CLC) – code is Uq3n7qj OR you can pick up a paper copy in the Career Centre

Automatic Entrance Scholarships Based on Grades – No need to apply!

Universities reward students for excellence in their English 12 and 3-5 approved academic courses. These grades average usually over 90%.

Student Loans

Student Loans are available to students who are in need of financial assistance. Evidence of financial need is required. Student loan packages are available at www.studentaidbc.ca and are usually filled out and submitted by June 30th for a September start. Applications are generally available early June

DSS Community Awards and the District Awards

Every year clubs, organizations, businesses, and individuals donate funds to our students to help in their education. At this time the District Award application is also available. Students must apply for these awards. Applications are available in April and are due late April to early May
